SHIFA CENTER FOR STRUCTURAL HEART & COMPLEX CORONARY INTERVENTIONS

Structural heart diseases refer to the abnormalities of heart & arteries related to heart valves, heart muscles & its supporting structures. Traditionally these conditions were treated through open surgical procedures but with the advancements in the field of medicine, interventional procedures were introduced that are less invasive, safe & effective, and require less recovery time for the high risk patients.

Shifa International Hospital started its center for Structural Heart Diseases in 2019 and since then the team has performed multiple complex cardiac interventions with successful outcomes. The center comprises an internationally experienced and trained team of Interventional Cardiologists, Cath Lab professionals & technicians, Nursing, Critical Care & support staff to ensure provision of an integrated care to the patients with better results.

Shifa International Hospital has state of the art Cath lab facility, which is equipped with the latest diagnostic & interventional facilities such as FFR, iFR, IVUS. The center is fully functional to perform complex procedure such as Rotablation Angioplasties, Transcatheter Aortic Valve Replacement (TAVI/ TAVR), Mitral Clip Repair, Aortic & Mitral Valve Repair without Surgery, treatment of Congenital Heart diseases (by birth), hole in heart in children and much more. In 2020, Dr. Asaad Akbar Khan (Consultant Interventional Cardiologist, SIH) performed more than 40 Rotablation Angioplasties, which was the most performed procedure in Pakistan at any facility.

Dr. Ahsan Arshad is a recent addition to Shifa Cardiology team who has joined the department as Consultant Interventional Cardiologist. He possesses vast international experience in treating common to complex cardiac diseases with problems related to structural heart and performing complex coronary interventions.
